

2017 Annual Conference York

5 - 7 April

Lifelong Learning: Local, Regional, International?

The Conference will include:

- keynote presentations: national and international perspectives on current issues
- seminar/workshops: a large programme on practice, research and policy
- poster sessions on innovative projects
- opportunity for networking and sharing experiences
- Conference Dinner including book launch, UALL Awards ceremony

The Conference will be held at the Monkbar Hotel in the centre of the historic city. We will be starting on the Wednesday evening, 5 April with an informal dinner to welcome delegates, international members and guests. This will be followed by two days' conference on the Thursday and Friday. The Drinks Reception, Book Launch and Conference Dinner will be held at the Merchant Taylors' Hall – the Hall dates from the 15th Century and is situated within the medieval city wall. The UALL 2017 Awards ceremony will take place at the Dinner.

Further details and the Call for Papers will be available shortly.
